

Examples from Reddit—mostly from the /r/sex subreddit—of misinformation or disinformation typically being upvoted and going unchallenged, along with examples of omission (e.g. no one saying something like “doing that is a bad idea,” pointing out the possibility of a preexisting condition, etc.), can be seen in subreddit threads referenced below. All of the URLs should be archived on archive.today and/or web.archive.org (and some of the threads, or at least the original posts, no longer are present on Reddit). Notably, Reddit’s /r/sex subreddit has enshrined the “sex-positive” bias into its posting rules.
